THE RAM

Foreword

As the curtain falls on the end of another school year and the Class of '74 takes its final march through the portals of WSSU, tears of joy and regret flow from the hearts of many. We now walk off the stage of academia to take our respective roles in the world. For some of us, the academic roles we played here will end. Some, blessed with new hopes and new fears, will begin another journey disseminating knowledge learned here so that others might benefit. And still for others the academic escalator will continue to climb.

Whatever the future holds in store for us, it will be a partial reflection of the past, eclipsed by our own individual preferences. When one looks back into the pond of yesteryear memories recur — some painful, some joyful. Years from now, as new truths unfold and as the agony and ecstasy of days at State University begin to fade in our minds, we hope that through some means the emotional involvement of those days can be recaptured and those experiences relived with the same intensity.

To that end we have bound together the pages of this edition of THE RAM. We relinquish it to your hands and hopefully your hearts. Make of it what you will.

— The Staff

In Memory of . . .

HAMLET GOORE

ARTEMIS GRAVES

DWIGHT LEVEY

Souls of ancient years past where time is standing still Reach out and greet the new ones gone
who now abide with them

Released from tears and time and pain freed by death's certain blow
We see them received unto the earth
their warmth we no longer know

Each day passes a different tone
of memories of those now gone
And yet what have we to do with days
Moon? Oh yes, perhaps just moan

But in the weeping of passing years
Shall we stop our flowing tears
And complete the task stopped lives would do
If not, alas shall we die too?

Dedication

It is said that we often forget the one who works closest with us. We, the Senior Class, would like to disprove this statement. When Mrs. Rodney could no longer be our advisor, this man stepped in and has been our Odysseus ever since. He was always at the helm when the waters of confusion were raging. He has been our inspiration when there seemed to be no hope. Now we have come to the end of our odyssey together. So to you, Rev. Henry S. Lewis, the Senior Class dedicates this culmination of four joyous and trying years — The 1974 RAM.

In Appreciation

Mr. Beaufort O. Bailey

Mr. Roland S. Watts

We, the Senior Class, are greatly indebted to two outstanding men who have shown untiring energy in their dedication to the development of the yearbook. So to you, Mr. Roland Watts and Mr. Beaufort Bailey, Thanks.

Administration

Forming the nucleus of the Ram family is the Administration. Without these people, who work all year round, the very essence of 'Ole SU would shatter. Despite their ups and downs, they continue to work to make the structure of Winston-Salem State University a strong and mighty one.

Well, Son I'll tell you:
Life for me ain't been no crystal stair.
It's had tacks in it,
And splinters,
And boards torn up,
And places with no carpet on the floor —
Bare.
But all the time
I'se been a-climbin' on,
And reachin' landin's,
And turnin' corners,
And sometimes goin' in the dark
Where there ain't been no light.
So, Boy, don't you turn back.
Don't you set down on the steps
'Cause you finds it's kinder hard.
Don't you fall now —
For I'se still goin', honey,
I'se still climbin',
And life for me ain't been no crystal stair.

The Soul of Blackness
Has been plagued
By anguish, pain
And countless fears.

The Soul of Blackness
Was bound and chained
And kept in ignorance
For years and years

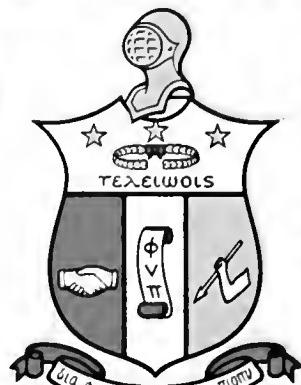

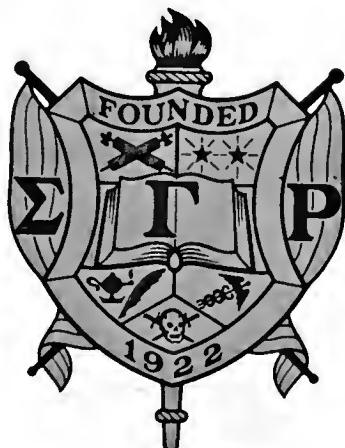

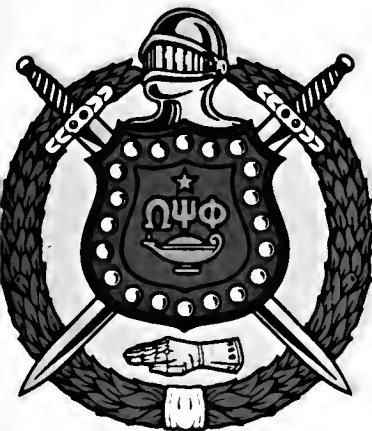

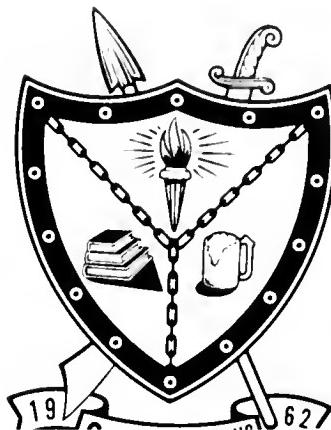

Chained with no means
Of escape in sight,
The Soul of Blackness
Cried bitter, bitter tears.

Scorned, abused and mistreated,
The damage was almost permanent.
For whelps of hatred and malice
Were compressed deep within the Dark habitance of our soul.

Almost permanent! For understand
The Soul of Blackness had weathered
Storms of our prejudice and hatred
For years and years . . .
But, like any impenetrable substance,
The Soul of Blackness stood though
Oppressed and full of fears.

Although blows of injustice
Have been inflicted upon The Soul —
It stood. And shall stand forever!

Years ago an "idea" was born, and "idea" to organize interested college men into a group who had as its basic purpose, achievement in education and subsequent areas of life, thus from this "idea" came KAPPA ALPHA PSI.

Black sister,
with your ofro,
with your smooth and black skin,
with your searching eyes, and your tender lips,
Black sister,
with your alluring thighs,
your sensuous body,
with your embracing arms, and your loving touch,
Find yourself,
make yourself,
come to yourself,
be yourself,
love as you are, and be the queen that you are.
Black sister,
with the weight of your people, with the last of their hope,
with the incentive of our age, and the encouragement of your smile,
Find me,
make me,
come to me,
be me,
live as me, and make me the king that I am.
Black sister,
my world begins with you
my world is sustained by you,
My world is you, and I could never be,
unless I be, with you.

Devalden Penn

The Athletic Department would like to express their gratitude to Devalden Penn.

Penn is the guy who for the last four years has done everything for the Athletic Department. He's the equipment manager for all sports, the host for all visiting teams, in charge of travel details, packs gear for every player and keeps the scorebook and statistics most of the time.

Indeed it will be a great loss to the Athletic Department when Devalden Penn leaves WSSU in Dec. 1974.

With the idea in mind of all entities sharing facilities, personnel, equipment and expertise, the fifteen following companies have joined hands with Winston-Salem State University in this initial year: Burlington Industries, Inc., Joseph Schlitz Brewing Co., The Northwestern Bank, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, R. J. Reynolds Industries, Sears, Raebuck and Company, Wachavia Bank and Trust Co., N. A., Winston Mutual Life Insurance Co., International Business Machines, Corp., Fairchild Industries, Western Electric Co., Inc., Kings Department Stores, Hanes Corporation, Piedmont Aviation and McLean Trucking Company. Others are expected to join the Cluster soon.

The 1974 Ram Staff

It is with great relief and pride that the Staff presents the '74 Ram. We have invested much time, energy and many ideas to compile a yearbook that the WSSU family will be proud of. We feel that we have accomplished this goal and hope that you will appreciate our efforts.

We have tried to reach every realm of life at Winston-Salem State University, including things that have special meaning to each of you.

Having limited staff, we have each developed a greater understanding of the importance of unity. Therefore, we hope that as you turn the pages of this book it will enforce your belief that "in unity there is strength."

We leave these thoughts and this book in your possession to make of it what you will. We hope that it means as much to you as it does to us.

Our Black Heritage . . .

Strengthens Our Future

Alma Mater

As we go forth from old State U.
A song of praise we sing to you,
And praises to the memories
Of days at State University.

Thy sons and daughters bring thee fame
Through knowledge which we here have gained
Exultingly we raise thy name,
O Winston-Salem State University.

As we go forth from old State U.
Good leaders we will always be,
And care for all humanity
As you've taught us, State University.

In all we do we shall proclaim
To all the world thy enduring fame,
As we go forth we praise thy name
O Winston-Salem State University.

THE ALUMNI AT WORK

Since 1936 the Alumni Association has played an important role in the University's history and growth. In every undertaking of the institution, graduates have joined forces to make its influence felt throughout the nation. Today, as the University faces a more demanding future, the WSSU Alumni Association stands ready and able to continue its efforts and support in building a more colorful heritage for this great institution.

WHO IS THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Winston-Salem State University Alumni Association is composed of graduates and former students of Slater Industrial School — Winston-Salem Teachers College — Winston-Salem State College — and Winston-Salem State University.

If one has attended any of the above for any amount of time, they are considered an Alumnus of what is presently known as Winston-Salem State University.

WHAT IT DOES

Promotes and Plans such activities that will support the WSSU objectives.

Plans and Promotes such activities that will maintain continuous communications between the Alumni at WSSU.

Plans and Promotes annual programs that will bring the association together for both business and social purposes.

Discovers, refers and supports high school graduates who may have good potentials for attendance.

Promotes community activities that will first contribute to the betterment of the community and secondly to a better understanding between community and University.

ANNUAL ACTIVITIES

The Association offers SCHOLARSHIP help to students who have been accepted to matriculate at WSSU.

During the year, the Association holds its ALUMNI BALL either in October or November (when Miss Alumni) is crowned, and the Alumni Cabaret and dance.

The big event, UNITY DAY, is held in March. This has been held in different cities throughout the country.

May is the time for ALUMNI DAY. This is the day that the Alumni Business meeting is held on the campus and officers are sworn into office.

THE ALUMNI HUT

Located on the campus, we have office space on the first floor, and on the second floor, we have sleeping quarters and a meeting room. These are used by the Association for meetings and sleeping quarters are used by alumnus who are visiting in the Winston-Salem area.
